

GREAT CROWDS IN MILWAUKEE

The State Fair and Jahr Markt Are Leading Attractions.

BOTH SUCCESSFUL

Methodist Conference and Republicans Are Also in Session.

CITY A BUSY PLACE

(Special A. D. Dispatch). Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 11.—The state fair in session here is the largest in point of attendance and exhibits that has ever been held in the history of Wisconsin. That and the Jahr Markt are drawing crowds to the city from the country towns and cities. The head-end collision that was held yesterday at the fair grounds attracted many and was a novel sight not often witnessed.

Train Service Poor
The train service is very poor and is inadequate for the crowds that travel over them. Yesterday there were forty-eight thousand people on the grounds and the trains ran until late last night bringing them away and taking them to their homes.

At The Jahr Markt
The Jahr markt was also crowded last night and the sight of the automobile parade was a charming one. The success of the affair seems assured and the third street merchants are now planning to have a similar one in a few weeks' time, having effected a permanent organization with this end in view.

Methodists in Session
Also opened with a large attendance of clergy and lay men from all over the state. Presiding Elder McChesney of Janesville advocated the using of the Salvation Army methods in reaching "out and out sinners." He thought that the church would be benefited more if the Army methods were more freely used. He also reported an increase of 350 conversions in the past year and improvements of the church property in his district.

With The Politicians
The republican state central committee is today in session at the Pilsener. General Bryant has all the correspondence on the Cary deal at hand and will present it this afternoon if it is called for. Mr. Buckstaff and Senator Stout have had a long conference and have decided to call for this correspondence and will doubtless make a stand on it for an explanation.

(Special To The Gazette). Madison, Wis., Sept. 11.—Governor LaFollette has declined the invitation of the managers of the St. Louis exposition to attend the gathering of the twenty governors, Oct. 1 to greet President Roosevelt on his visit to St. Louis.

No Reasons Given

BRIEF BITS OF LOCAL NEWS.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent by the ladies in playing High King and other card games. At six o'clock the gentlemen joined the party and after supper the evening was spent in playing progressive high king. All had a splendid time and will long remember Mrs. Baldwin's anniversary.

SANITARY DEFEAT BRITISH SHIP.

San Francisco, Sept. 11.—Alleging hardship, the sailors of the British ship County of Edinburgh, which is in quarantine, have deserted. In thus deserting the ship they voluntarily relinquish all claim to nine months' wages. The British consul vainly tried to induce the men to return to the ship.

TSZCHI GOES TO CUBAN REPUBLIC

New York Chinese Consul Has Been Sent to Cuba by His Government.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 11.—(Special).—An important bulletin in regard to Cuba has been prepared by the geological survey. From this official source it appears that Cuba, with an acreage of 44,000 square miles and a population in 1899 of 1,572,797, had only three per cent. of the area of the island and only ten per cent. of the area under cultivation.

Less Highly Cultivated
The most highly cultivated portions of the island were in Mantanzas and Havana provinces, which lie adjoining in its western part, while in Puerto Principe, the large central province, the cultivation was comparatively slight, and the land was used mostly for cattle ranches. The crops in the order of areas cultivated, were: First, sugar cane, occupying somewhat less than half of the cultivated area; next, sweet potatoes, occupying 11 per cent. of the area; tobacco, 9 per cent., and bananas a trifle less than 9 per cent. Tobacco and sugar were grown in all of the provinces. In 1899 there were in Cuba 207 sugar mills, with a daily production of 61,407 bags.

REPORT OF CUBA'S CROPS MADE

Interesting Facts About Our Sister Republic Have Been Made Public.

New York, Sept. 11.—(Special).—Chow Tszchi, who has been Chinese consul at New York for three years and who has been appointed Chinese consul general to Cuba, has received his commission and will leave here shortly for his new post. Enforced in Island
During the American military control the Chinese exclusion act was enforced throughout the island. ## DRILL SOLDIERS IN MEDICAL SERVICE

Practical Hospital Work Will Be an Important Feature of Army Maneuvers.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 11.—(Special).—An important feature of the army maneuvers at Fort Riley, Kas., will be the arrangements which have been made for the medical department's equipment. The new surgeon general of the army is making preparations to place at Fort Riley as many medical officers and hospital men as can be assembled at that place without detriment to the service, in order that as many as possible may get practical benefit from the workings of the great medical department during the period of mock hostilities.

Establish Base Hospital
A dispensary and hospital will be provided for each regiment, and a field hospital of 108 beds will be established for the command. The post hospital at Fort Riley will serve as a base hospital. A field hospital organized in accordance with the new regulations of the medical department is such that it can be readily divided into three parts of sixty-three beds each, and it is likely that in the present instance, when the period of hostilities commences at Fort Riley, this hospital will be divided between the opposing forces.

SPOONER WINS IN DANE COUNTY

Administration Candidates Snowed Under in Last Night's Caucuses.

SWEEPING VICTORY

Senator's Home County Gives Him an Unqualified Endorsement.

FIGHT WAS BITTER

(Special A. D. Dispatch). Madison, Wis., Sept. 11.—Last night's caucuses clearly demonstrated that the sentiment in favor of the return of Senator John C. Spooner, regardless of any plank of the republican platform is exceptionally strong. By a ratio of nearly three to one the Spooner men last night chose delegates for the assembly conventions throughout the county that are unqualifiedly for the Senator's return.

A Hot Fight
The fight just closed was a long, hot one and one in which the question of Spooner and anti-Spooner only was raised. The Spooner leaders wanted it understood from the outset that they had intended to have no opposition raised as to the state ticket or the state platform except where it touched upon John C. Spooner and his return to the senate. They had hard up hill work and many obstacles to overcome but last night's victory was so clean cut and such a decisive one that it insures a solid Dane county delegation in the next assembly for the senator.

Is Significant
The action is significant on the fact that Madison is the home of both Senator Spooner and Governor LaFollette. All the energies of the executive crowd have been devoted to wards having delegates chosen who, while they might be for Spooner's return, were not for him unqualifiedly. State Chairman Bryant, of the republican committee, set the pace and said that he did not like the word unqualifiedly.

Democratic Chances
The Democrats feel jubilant over the dissension in the republican ranks and are making preparations to place in nomination a strong ticket. Dane is a close county at all times and the majority of the republicans was only three hundred two years ago. The democrats are making plans to have such a ticket in the field that they will draw all of the dissatisfied republicans over to their side on election day.

Young Girl Falls From Fifth Story
Little Chicago Miss Sustains a Broken Jaw and Arm Besides Other Injuries.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Thirteen-year-old Nellie May Spencer fell from the top of a five-story building at 3535 Cottage Grove avenue, sustaining a broken arm and jaw and severe bruises about the body.

In company with other children, the girl went to the roof to play. Suddenly the laughter ceased and a scream was heard. Mrs. Spencer had then gone into her apartments and the cries of "Nellie is killed," "Nellie is killed," did not reach her ears.

Joseph Hickey ran into the building. By this time the other children had reached the ground floor. They said their companion had stumbled on the roof and fell through the skylight.

Hickey was soon at the bottom of the light shaft on the first floor. There he found the girl unconscious. Her arms and face were covered with blood. After dashing cold water in the girl's face in a vain attempt to revive her, he summoned a physician.

COLD WEATHER CAUSES HASTE

GROWERS ARE FEARFUL OF A BAD FROST.

CROPS ARE COMING WELL

Reports Say That the Northern Pine Lands Are Good for the Weed.

The cold weather of the last few days has caused tobacco growers who still have leaf standing in the fields to make extra efforts to get it in the sheds as soon as possible. While no damage has been done in this immediate vicinity by frost, it is reported that there was some damage Tuesday night near Stoughton and Madison. While the majority of the growing crops are harvested and safely out of the way of the frosts, there is enough still out of doors to cause considerable loss to the growers. The early harvested crops are curing satisfactorily and the late rains have been a great help in this direction.

The early buying movement has been almost wholly confined to the Vernon district, where it is thought that at least 1000 acres have been purchased at prices ranging from 10 to 12 cents. Very few have paid the outside figure the majority of the sales being around the 10 cent mark.

Large Buyings
The United Cigar Manufacturers are credited with being large buyers, but most of the conservative dealers are waiting until the crop is more thoroughly cured before buying. The growers to have been generally slow about accepting the early contracts preferring to wait until later to see how the market develops. The report comes that in the vicinity of Stoughton the harvest is nearly completed. The crop is of a superior quality and only a few of the late crops show a tendency to rust. The American Tobacco company which did a good business around Madison and Stoughton last year, has considerable old tobacco on hand and is not rushing into the market this year.

Going North
The same authority states that on account of the lighter soil of the northern counties producing a superior leaf to that grown in Rock and Dane counties that the trade was working away from Edgerton, and that place was losing its reputation of being the tobacco center of the Northwest.

This year, Wood county is coming to the front in raising tobacco. There has been considerable speculation about raising tobacco so far north, but during the last few years the farmers have been experimenting in this direction and have concluded that the climate and soil are favorable to raising large crops. This year a number of large crops have been raised and are of fine quality.

Fine Lands Good
The experiments have shown that the land the pines grew on will raise good grass and crops and taken with the climate will raise good tobacco. Year by year the crop reaches farther north and may become one of the principal crops of the northern counties.

In the general New York leaf market light wrappers and seconds had the preference, and the cream of them is gone. Binders came in for a good second, and several thousand cases of Onondago and Big Flats and Pennsylvania were turned over to the Western jobbers. Altogether the week's business corresponded to the demands of the season, and even if the attempt was made to drive a close bargain, the lots sold brought fairly reasonable returns.

Sumatra
The Sumatra market profited likewise from the general rush. Many a jobber who could not get a sufficient supply of light domestic wrapper leaf turned to the Sumatra to help him out and some very handsome orders were taken. Nearly 400 bales of Sumatra were thus disposed of.

The Havana market shared also in some degree in the patronage of the buyers. But there seems to be a disposition to acquire rather than the cheaper grades and trash than the clear, sound, matured good which are formerly expressly put in Cuba for the North.

New York.
Local buyers are beginning to inspect the growing tobacco with an idea of locating the best crop for early buying before the representatives of the large concerns enter the field. The favorable weather of the past fortnight has improved the leaf wonderfully, and in some localities harvesting has already begun. But although farmers are much encouraged by the improvement in the outlook, it is generally admitted that the crop will fall considerably short of that of last year. The late planted tobacco will not mature for nearly a month yet, and the danger from frost therefore is not to be ignored. The earlier variety is very uneven. There are localities where an average yield will be obtained, but there are many more where, owing to the many setbacks previously reported in these letters, the returns will be much less than normal.

Connecticut Valley.
It is now tobacco harvesting time, and the farmers are busily engaged in getting the leaves into the barns. As usual, each grower declares his crop to be the best he ever raised, but he is generally willing to admit that his neighbor has not been quite so fortunate. No one admits that his leaf has suffered any kind of damage, and in respect to injury from insects this statement is true; but when earnest most growers will reluctantly admit that if weather conditions had been different they would have been better satisfied. But there are really some very fine looking lots, and the buyers are beginning to circulate for the purpose of securing them. The growers, however, are fully aware of the situation, and are by no means anxious to sell at once, expecting no doubt, that the more accurately conditions the greater will be the market value of their goods. In consequence there are no sales reported in spite of the presence of many riders who would be glad to commence business if prices could be agreed upon.

Lancaster.
Not a little surprise was created in the last days of last week by the fact that several buyers had been out and bagged several crops of the new tobacco. I do not know whether it had been harvested or was still in the field. The price was 8 and 2 cents. Similar offers were refused by the farmers who are not partial to that kind of selling. The crop now going into the barns certainly looks as if it was worth every cent of the money paid for these early lots.

Cincinnati.
The cigar leaf trade is reported to be in a very satisfactory condition. The sales are not of a great volume but are steady, and the demand for good tobacco continues firm. Most of our dealers are now getting ready to go east and make their purchases for the coming season.

BUSINESS MAN PLAYS HAND BALL

Director Mack Opens the Official Season for This Interesting Sport.

Tuesday evening Athletic Director W. E. Mack of the Y. M. C. A. induced the first business man of the season to try the new hand ball courts in the auditorium. His first efforts at the game occasioned a certain amount of merriment among the onlookers, but as he played longer their smiles changed to applause. When the gentleman at last stopped he probably had enough to stiffen his limbs and blister his hands for several days. Mr. Mack's proposition, however, that he would be back at the game soon and that any others of our business men who have passed of the first vigor of youth and give the game a single trial, will become equally enthusiastic.

Tournament Planned.
Every effort will be made to interest as many as possible, both young and old in the game. The courts are almost in constant use already and it is expected that many new converts will be gained to the long list of devotees of the game. A tournament will be played later in the season and several teams organized.

Twenty years ago there was not a commercially successful typesetting machine in the world. Even ten years ago these labor-saving machines were but just introduced. To-day the Mergenthaler, the Scudder, the Linston, the Godson, the Dow, and the Simplex—all assemble the type by a touch of the finger on the keyboard. Their speed is said to be limited only by the dexterity of the operator, and one man does the work of five or six by the old and laborious hand process.—Mahan's Magazine for September.

JANESVILLE HAS MANY MORE NAMES

THE NEW DIRECTORY CONTAINS SEVEN THOUSAND.

BELOIT HAS FIVE THOUSAND

Are Fewer Workmen Here Than in the Line City, But More Wealth.

Within a few days a list of about two thousand names for the new city directory which is now being compiled by E. D. Bullock of Beloit, will be put into the hands of the printers. More will follow shortly after, and it will not be long before the entire work is finished. Some interesting comparative facts have been brought out in the compilation of this directory, bearing upon Janesville and Beloit. Mr. Bullock is in an excellent position to judge of these facts, because he had already completed a similar work for Beloit before taking up the present venture.

Janesville More Populous.

One fact that has brought out is that Beloit's claims to having already surpassed the county seat in population are unfounded. About seven thousand names will be embraced in the local directory, while the Beloit book of early this year, contained about two thousand less. These figures look rather small, but it must be considered that this only includes between forty-five and fifty per cent. of the entire population. No children under sixteen will be included neither will married women whose husbands are still living, as it would only result in a more bulky volume, with no increased number of addresses.

Fewer Laborers.

On the other hand the Line City has considerably the advantage in point of number of working men. The Berlin Works, the Fairbank-Morse plant, the Thompson Plow Works, besides numerous smaller concerns such as the Knitting works, Besley works, Gesley works, and many others, employ, when taken in the total, a vast army of men. In opposition to this the Bower City has far more wealth among its residents than the thriving factory town.

MAY HAVE RACES HERE IN OCTOBER

Talk of Matching Nicholas J. and Aunt Laura—Other Events Planned.

Local horsemen are talking of a match race between Nicholas J. 2:13 1-2, owned by C. H. Bliven, of Edgerton, and Aunt Laura, 2:14 1-2, owned by John L. Fisher of this city. The race if made, will be held over the Janesville track the first of October. Beloit, Jefferson and Madison all hold race meetings the last week in September and a two days meeting in this city the first of October ought to draw horses from each of these three cities.

Need Support
In order to make the meeting a success, it will need support, from the local business men. It costs considerable money to get a meeting of this kind up and outside help is necessary to carry it through.

They stopped but a moment to greet some friends and then mounting their wheels pedaled post-haste in the direction of Evansville. Their names were Herman Canfield and Gage Baldwin, and their homes are in Sparta. Both of them will enter the freshman class of the state university on September 24th.

Made Many Stops.

At Portage, Baraboo, and Mazomania they made stops of about a day each, but with those exceptions they have hardly rested in their efforts save to sleep at night. Wet weather delayed them on several days but they did not halt. Tonight they meet with no accident they will reach Madison, and by the end of the week they will be again at home.

MISS ALICE BLISS BECOMES A BRIDE

MARRIED TO LUTHER JESSUP

Pretty Home Wedding Occurred Last Night, and the Happy Couple Will Live in Indiana.

Last evening there was a pretty home wedding at the home of James Bliss in the town of Rock, the bride being his only daughter, Miss Alice Bliss, whose marriage to Luther Jessup, of Greenfield, Ind., was solemnized in the presence of a small company of relatives and friends.

The home was beautifully decorated with a profusion of roses, carnations and asters. There were no march, the wedding being a simple affair and home like as possible. The bride was especially pretty in her becoming wedding gown as she took the vows which made her the wife of Mr. Jessup. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James Churn, pastor of the First M. E. church, at half after eight o'clock. Congratulations and an elaborate wedding supper followed, the guests

"YON YONSON."

Watch the Funny Swede Tell His Funniest Stories Friday. Whatever may be the faults of ninety-nine out of every one hundred dialect plays, none of them are apparent in "Yon Yonson," which is to be seen in this city at the Myers Grand, Friday evening, Sept. 12. This fine comedy-drama goes merrily on its way, a very welcome visitor year after year, always playing to receipts which are the envy of less fortunate play producers than Manager P. J. Kennedy. Though in dialect, it is perfectly understandable to all classes of theater-goers. It is a musical dialect—one that has magnetism enough to furnish several of the ordinary plays. Those who have seen "Yon Yonson" and heard his many merry quips always want to see him again. He is the best natured, the merriest of all stage characters not even excepting those created by the late Joe Emmett, and that is one of his main bids for popularity with both young and old. Manager P. J. Kennedy has imported a new "Yon" for this season in Nels Erickson, who is conceded by all who have seen him in his native land, Sweden, and England, as the biggest hit of all dialect comedians now before the public. That was the reason his service and the necessity

HAD DISTINGUISHED VISITOR

Lieutenant General William Frost, Head of the Patriarchs Militant, Was in the City.

Canton Janesville, No. 9, Patriarchs Militant, was out in full regalia last evening to serve as escort to William S. Frost of Chicago, lieutenant general of the order, who was in the city as the guest of Wisconsin lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F. Members of Canton Janesville marched from the West Side Odd Fellows Hall to the Grand hotel where Mr. Frost was staying and then preceded the carriage in which he and two of the local officers rode to the East Side Odd Fellows' hall where the regular meeting was held.

Members of the other local Odd Fellow lodges were invited to attend the meeting and many availed themselves of the opportunity to hear Mr. Frost speak. This gentleman is a very entertaining speaker and he gave a splendid address on the benefits and advantages of the order. By request he also gave something of his own personal history in the order and of his advancement from a subordinate member to the highest office of the Patriarchs Militant. He is the second man to hold this office and has jurisdiction of the entire order in the United States.

Mr. Frost also spoke in the interests of the meeting of the sovereign grand lodge which is to convene in Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 15-20. Odd Fellows and their ladies were urged to take advantage of the excursion rate of $5 which has been secured for the round trip from Chicago. At the close of the meeting, the distinguished gentleman was escorted back to the hotel by Canton No. 9.

On the Norfolk & Western Railroad the six months' tonnage was reported as amounting to 4,140,879 tons, of which 1,333,183 tons reached tide water. For the twelve months ending with June the Southern Railway embracing Tennessee and Alabama districts, handled 3,431,365 tons of coal originating on its lines. Receipts of coal and coke at St. Louis for the seven months ending with July of this year amounted to 2,819,313 tons, compared with 2,419,943 tons for the corresponding period of 1901. Receipts at Chicago for seven months ending with July show a total of 5,138,062 tons this year, compared with 5,223,697 tons last year. The Connelville weekly coke output still averages some what higher than during 1901.

THE TWO CANDIDATES.

Mayor Rose is in the field as the nominee of the democratic party for governor, and Robert M. La Follette heads the republican ticket by the authority of a convention composed of a majority created by democratic caucus support. The democratic party is responsible for the nomination of both men, and has no occasion for disappointment in the defeat of either.

So far as the conservative end of both parties are concerned it is the first time in the history of the state when they have been called upon to unite in a feeling of indifference. This element in the democratic party is no better satisfied with the nomination of Rose than is the same element in the republican party with the nomination of La Follette. The general feeling prevails among the men that republicanism and democracy is not fairly represented.

So far as the two candidates are concerned they possess elements of similarity. Both are good talkers and good campaigners. Mayor Rose possesses both physical and mental strength, while Governor La Follette is a little short on the former.

The campaign itself as outlined by Mayor Rose, promises to be destitute of argument and devoted largely to personalities. This always means a dirty campaign, destitute of either honor or glory.

The charges made by Mayor Rose will be taken up by the governor's organs but they will not receive much attention from the press of the state, because they are a rehash of charges already preferred.

The republican press of the state will be loyal to the republican party, but it has no more use for La Follette, than it had during the pre-convention campaign.

The governor will be reelected in spite of indifference which is by no means confined to the republican press. While it is an off year national issues are indirectly involved. The party should return its full delegation to congress and make sure of Senator Spooner's reelection. State issues, created in the fertile brain of a modern reformer, will take care of themselves. The people will be heard through their representatives, and while it was possible for the governor to control the convention that nominated him, it will not be possible for him to control the men who represent the people in the legislature.

Mayor Rose will find the state of Wisconsin a larger field than the city of Milwaukee, and more difficult to handle. In his defeat the democratic party will simply meet another Waterloo and the party is accustomed to defeat.

JOHN C. SPENCER.

In the death of John C. Spencer the city loses one of its old land marks as well as one of its staunchest friends. Mr. Spencer was a modest unassuming man, possessing a warm heart and genial disposition that won for him a host of friends. He was honest and loyal and during his long term of service on the Gazette he was noted for integrity of character and faithfulness to duty.

He attended the late B. F. Nowlan's funeral the other day in company with some of the office force, and said to a friend, "I wonder who will be next?" Little thinking that the summons would come to him.

His work in the fire department will long be a reminder of a man who was absorbed in his calling. His familiar presence will be missed on the street and the home will feel the loss of a kindly husband and father.

John Bull is trying to sick us on Emperor Willie for the sinking of that gun boat down in Haiti. Shame on you Johnny. If you cannot whip Willie yourself why make Sammy the trouble to do so? Willie did not mean anything by what he did. It was simply a practice for his nice little boat.

After Bartholin committed suicide and thus ended his life it was hoped that all talk on him would cease but not so. Now the Chicago police want to find the Chicago girl that sent him money and helped him while he was in Iowa.

Brother Bear must have had a contract with the weather man. He had some snow up on Lake Superior and it was none to warm here either. Coal it was none to warm here either. Coal weather coming.

St. Louis aldermen are becoming very profligate in their disclosures these days. They have all sorts of explanations to make and all sorts of rich, rare and racy news is finding its way into publication.

Dr. Senn says that the Sick Man of the East has the finest hospital that he ever saw. That can be explained by the fact that the Sick Man never pays his bills, hence he can afford to have hospitals.

Tom Johnson and his circus campaign are making money. Crowds go to hear him and stop to drink his lemonade. They also play at the "nigger baby" game that is running.

If Tom Johnson could only have that "Fish Pond" that opened here the last night of the carnival, for a few months, Ohio democrats could pay the national campaign out of the receipts without trying.

President Roosevelt is now a fireman. Without a doubt Teddy could fire an engine as well as the best of them if he had to. One thing is certain he would not be ashamed of his job.

Gates says that betting against a book maker is a cinch. Yet it is said that Gates is backing one book for a large sum. Is he trying to induce betters to patronize the sport?

Evanson has a baby show and from latest reports the judges are now looking for some South American city where revolutions are common occurrences to get a rest in.

Emperor William says trolley cars are an enemy to humanity. Evidently Willie has heard of the Janesville street car service when you are in a hurry.

More fools are trying their necks at the Whirlpool Rapids, Niagara. Here is a solution for Dr. Andrew's over population.

The advance in the price of soap will more than ever give the tramp the excuse for not taking more than the yearly bath.

Really Sam Small is entitled to another chance. He was only drunk twice and the old saying is three times and out.

St. Louis, the Philadelphia of the West. That is the cry since bootling years old has been discovered.

Friends of W. J. Bryan say that he will take the nomination in 1904, if he can get it.

Maine went hell bent. So the democratic brethren said in meeting.

Chicago and Baltimore are boiling—that is water. They have typhoid.

Detroit Free Press: Colonel Waterson should remember that a democratic national convention once nominated Mr. Cleveland because of the enemies that he had the good taste to make.

Announcement.

TO IMPRESS more strongly upon the public that we are giving better values in Shoes than other dealers offer, we have set a new standard of value for Shoes at the price of $3.50. Heretofore $3.50 Shoes here and elsewhere have attained a wide popularity and the qualities generally offered at this price have, by close competition, been raised to a very satisfactory degree. But we have decided that $3.50 as a price for Shoes shall now have a different meaning. It shall mean qualities which heretofore no shoe has even contemplated for a $3.50 of the various producers' efforts greatest value for this popular price. After many months of planning, most careful investigation of the whole situation, from the first stages of making a shoe to the final fit and further economy by figuring smaller profits, we have completed all arrangements for and have now placed on sale a line of shoes for Men and Women which we know has raised the $3.50 standard beyond all other lines of shoes now sold anywhere for this price.

We have named this Shoe The "STANDARD"

All desirable styles, all sizes, all leathers, all lasts, all combinations usually found in High Grade Shoes for Men and Women.

MRS. P. E. NEUSES KILLS HERSELF

JUMPS OVER A BANISTER IN A MILWAUKEE SANITARIUM.

DIED HALF AN HOUR LATER

Had Suffered Nervous Depression for Nearly Two Years, and Was Mentally Irresponsible.

While suffering from melancholia, the result of a long continued attack of nervous prostration, Mrs. Peter E. Neuses, of this city, took her own life this morning at 6:30 o'clock at the Sacred Heart Sanitarium, in Milwaukee, where she had been for the past month for treatment. Mrs. Neuses jumped over a banister and fell twenty-four feet. Death resulted half an hour later.

Nervously Depressed
News of her tragic death came as a severe shock to her many friends in this city. Mrs. Neuses had suffered from nervous prostration ever since the birth of her youngest child, nearly two years ago. She became subject to fits of melancholia which baffled medical skill, although every effort was made to care for her at home. This summer Mr. Neuses took her to her mother's home in Sheboygan, hoping that the change might benefit her, but she grew steadily worse and they returned to Janesville.

Taken To Milwaukee
About a month ago she was taken to the Sacred Heart sanitarium, a Catholic institution, in Milwaukee, and it was thought that she was growing better. Yesterday Mr. Neuses received a letter that she was so much improved that he might come to Milwaukee to see her. He arranged to go this morning but before he left he received a telegram saying that she was dead. The manner of her death was withheld in this dispatch.

Devoted To Home
Mrs. Neuses was about thirty-seven years of age and was a daughter of the late Philip Reiss, the prosperous coal merchant of Sheboygan. She came here with her husband from Chicago seven years ago, shortly after their marriage and although she devoted herself almost exclusively to her home, her husband and her children, she made many friends and won their warmest affection and esteem. She was a woman of beautiful character and Christian graces and her loss will be sadly felt in her home and among her friends.

Those Who Mourn
Deceased leaves a devoted husband and four small children, one girl and three boys. Her husband went to Milwaukee this morning and the announcement of the funeral arrangements will be made later.

CITY DEATH ROLL

Fredericka Block
The funeral of the late Fredericka Block was held yesterday morning from her home at 9:30 o'clock and from St. Paul's Lutheran church at 10 o'clock. Rev. C. J. Koerner officiated at the services which were largely attended. The remains were taken to the Center cemetery for burial, and those who acted as pall bearers were Henry Myer, Wm. Hill, Fred Lempe, Fred Smith, Redfern Lentz and Julius Lentz.

Small Profits
The net proceeds of the Labor Day exercises was but $5.30. It has been decided to levy a tax of 25 cents on each member of the unions affiliated with the Federated Trades council so that there will be a good sum in the treasury. They have also decided to give a dance in Assembly hall on the evening of Sept. 23.

Miss Edith Johnson
The funeral of Miss Edith Johnson will be held from the chapel at Oak Hill cemetery at a quarter past ten o'clock on Friday morning. Her brother, Leonard O. Johnson, of Chicago, who has been in New York, on business has telegraphed that he will arrive in this city tonight to attend the funeral. Two other brothers, both of whom live in Chicago, and the sorrowing mother are left to mourn her loss. They are Emanuel I. Johnson and Arthur D. Johnson.

John C. Spencer
Funeral services for the late John C. Spencer will be held from his home, 217 North Bluff street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Members of the fire department and of the various orders to which Mr. Spencer belonged will attend the services. The interment will be in Oak Hill cemetery and the casket will be borne to its last resting place in Horse Cart No. 3, draped as a funeral car.

Oscar Wright
This afternoon at 2:30 the funeral of Oscar D. M. Wright was held from his home at 270 South Main street. Rev. Richard M. Vaughan was the officiating clergyman, and the house was well filled with friends of the deceased.

Patrick McShane
At nine o'clock this morning Rev. James McGinnity conducted the funeral of Patrick McShane at St. Patrick's church. The interment was in Mount Olivet cemetery. The pall bearers were James Sennett, James Deo, John Casey, John Nash, James Kemmets, and Michael Burn.

INJUNCTION DID NOT RESTRAIN

SECOND CHAPTER IN THE GAL-LUP-BICKEL TROUBLE.

BICKEL IS UNDER ARREST

The Husband Charges Him with a Statute Crime, in Court.

The second chapter in the celebrated Gallup-Bickel injunction proceedings was started yesterday, when the injured husband, J. B. Gallup, appeared before Judge Fillel and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Thos. Bickel and Mrs. Louise Gallup, of Bickel of Milton Junction on the charge of adultery.

The warrant was given to Under-sheriff Cochran to serve and this morning he landed Bickel in jail. The first proceedings in this action were taken in the early part of August. J. J. Cunningham as attorney for J. B. Gallup, drew up a complaint and a petition asking for an injunction restraining Thomas Bickel of Milton Junction from interfering with his wife, Mrs. Louise Gallup and restraining him from speaking to her or writing to her, either directly or indirectly, or doing anything tending or intended to alienate her affections from her husband.

The Injunction
The complaint and petition were presented to Edwin F. Carpenter, court commissioner, on the 7th day of August and an injunction was issued by him and filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court on Aug. 8. This action was taken for the reason that Thomas E. Bickel was insolvent and no pecuniary damages could be obtained.

Reside in Milton Junction
The parties to the action reside in Milton Junction. Gallup is a carpenter by trade and is a hard working man. Louise Gallup, is considerably younger than he is, she being 26 and he 37. Gallup and his wife were married on September 15, 1891 and have four children. Up to the winter of 1901 and 1902 their home life had always been happy and contented.

A Divorced Man
About this time, the original complaint says, Bickel, who on December 6, 1901 secured a divorce from his wife on the grounds of desertion, appeared on the scene. He was the father of three children. He was a carpenter and went to work for Gallup. Shortly after, Bickel, went to work for Gallup, Gallup was taken sick and was ill for several weeks. During his sickness Bickel visited him quite often and became acquainted with his wife.

Made Advances
The story is that he made some advances to Mrs. Gallup and that she seemed inclined to accept them. Several times while Gallup was away for a day or two doing carpenter work, Bickel and Mrs. Gallup met clandestinely and afterward used Bickel's son Clarence for a messenger. At another time, about June 17, he went to Northern Wisconsin and remained until July 25. On his return home he found out that the intimacy between his wife and Bickel had increased and that during his absence they have made several trips out of town, one of them being to Fort Atkinson, where they remained for several days.

Famous Injunction
The injunction obtained in August ordered "That the said defendant, his agents, or servants and employees, be and hereby are restrained and enjoined from meeting Louise Gallup, at her home in Milton Junction, or at any other place in Wisconsin, or by communicating with her by writing or by signs or doing anything to interfere with the marital relations existing between the plaintiff and said Louise Gallup."

No Action Taken
No proceedings were taken by Bickel after the injunction was issued to test its validity and he evidently thought it was without force. He did not mend his ways and he and Mrs. Gallup continued to meet clandestinely the same as if no injunction had been issued.

Last Resort
Mr. Gallup tried in every way possible to reform his wife and have her give up her relations with Bickel. He found that ordinary means were of no avail so as a last resort swore out a criminal warrant against Bickel.

HERE AFTER THE BONUS OFFERED

OFFICIALS OF THE HOUGH SHADE
COMPANY IN CITY.

MONEY NOT ALL RAISED YET

Only Half of the Four Thousand Dollars Has Been Subscribed
Thus Far.

Messrs. Don C. Farnsworth and A. C. Hough of Worcester, Mass., members of the Hough Porch Shade Co., who made a proposition to move their plant to Janesville arrived here last evening. They expected to find the bonus asked for by them for moving their factory to this city all subscribed and were surprised to find that only about half the required amount had been raised.

They are determined to come west with their plant if they can get the necessary bonus and will wait two days longer before looking up the offers made them by other cities in the west. The committee in charge of the matter of raising the bonus took a fresh start this morning and will be out again Friday, soliciting donations to this fund.

An Opportunity
This is really a first class business and will be a great lift to the manufacturing industries of Janesville. They do not wish to sell any stock but simply ask the bonus to defray the expense of moving from the east to Janesville.

$15,000 Plant
They figure on building a plant that will cost from twelve to fifteen thousand dollars and in this way a large share of the bonus will come back to the donors. It is hoped that all those solicited for a donation will give something, small amounts help to bring up the total.

COVENANT CLUB TO EDUCATE A NEGRO

Young Girls of This City Will Clothe a Southern Girl and Pay Her Tuition.

In the club room of the Congregational church last evening, a young girls who compose the membership of the Covenant Club of the King's daughters held a most enjoyable social in connection with their annual thank offering service and business meeting. The Covenant club is a missionary circle and last evening it voted $15 to foreign missions.

Last year the club undertook the work of clothing and paying the tuition of a young colored girl in the south who is anxious to secure an education in order that she may care for herself. This philanthropic work will be continued by the club this year.

Mrs. Robert C. Denison read a very interesting letter from a missionary in Alaska, describing the pitiful conditions, especially as they relate to children. The balance of the evening was pleasantly spent in playing various games and in eating fudges.
